College Counseling Begins For Prospective Students

Prospective students of El Camino College planning full-time enrollment are currently securing appointments for counseling in the college counseling office.

Advisability of early appointment dates was pointed out this week by W. Holmes Smith, assistant director of student personnel, in charge of counseling and guidance. Smith indicated that students securing early counseling dates generally succeed in registering for the program of classes which they desire.

Late registrants, the college administrator noted, are frequently confronted by closed classes.

Part-time students of the college who completed the spring semester at El Camino will register for fall semester classes from 1 to 3 and from 5:30 to 7 p.m. August 2. They are advised to bring spring semester grades with them. Reservation cards for registration of other part-time students are currently available in the college registration office. These students will register from August 24 to Sept. 1.

OPEN
The counseling office is open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, while the registration office is open from 8 a.m. through 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 8 a.m. through 4 p.m. on Fridays.

Full semester schedules of classes are now available in the registration office.

Zodys Firm to Open Third Discount Department Store

Zodys Discount Department Stores' newest location will open August 10 in Long Beach, according to Richard H. Wolfe, vice president and general manager of the Southern California chain store operation.

This is the third store to be opened by Zodys since June of 1960 and is part of a 36-store chain that is planned for California within the next several years.

Located on a seven and a half acre site, the new Zodys will feature an extravagant use of color with plastic laminates being used for departmental identification.

INTERIOR
Mike and Dale Clark, A.I.A., recent graphic design award winners, have been retained to develop the design and fabrication of the interior signs and decorative screens. Contractor was the Wm. P. Neil Co., Ltd.

In addition to the conventional major appliance, ready-to-wear, jewelry and photo, baby and sporting goods departments, the Long Beach store will include a new lay-away department adjacent to a huge stock room.

SPECIAL DEVELOPMENT
"This feature has been specifically developed for holiday shoppers who are assured that their merchandise will be properly stored and cared for during the lay-away period," Wolfe stated.

Wolfe also reported that the Long Beach store would have an enlarged shoe department providing greater selections and increased facilities for better customer service including adequate seating. Another innovation will be the construction of a massive illuminated pylon sign which will be used for identification in three directions as well as for sales messages.

SNACK BARS
The store will have two snack bars; a service facility in front with a larger unit in the rear. A total of 12 check-out stands will handle the self-service customers. Like other units in the Southland chain, the floor is of terrazzo while the ceiling is of acoustical tile.

Superintendent Addresses Group During Workshop

Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of Torrance Unified School District, addressed the Current Trends in Education Workshop at the University of Redlands July 18.

His subject was "Current Trends in School Public Relations."

Two weeks in length, the workshop features speeches by school superintendents and other education officials at the national, state, and local level.

Among the future speakers will be Dr. Wallace W. Hall, associate superintendent of public instruction for California, who will close the workshop on July 28.

Dr. Frank E. Bishop, professor of education at the University, is the director of the workshop.

"This workshop is especially designed for teachers and other professional workers in education to enable them to keep abreast of current developments in the field," said Dr. Bishop.

The workshop meets every day, Monday through Friday, during the two week period. This is the 15th year in which the University has sponsored this workshop.
